

It is my understanding that Sinclair Media has a responsibility to the public to provide a fair and unbiased opinion of BOTH presidential candidates. They have scheduled a critical and unpleasant program concerning Kerry, will they be doing the same for Bush? If they are not going to play something critical of Bush, will they be playing something pro-Kerry? My final question. If they are not going to do either then why play the anti-Kerry? I believe that if they continue with the plan to play "Stolen Honor" they should also make sure to play something to passify the Democratic viewer shortly thereafter.

Please take these comments into consideration, thank you.

Amanda McConchie

Democratic Voter